The next meeting is February 5. Doors will open at 9:00 p.m. as usual. The program will be "Tower Clocks". The highlight of the meeting will be a chance to see the 2011 National Convention Craft Contest winning Tower Clock Movement. (Check the cover of the latest Bulletin). Dave Ornelas and Ben Orszulak, both familiar faces, won two first place awards, including the very prestigious "People's Choice" award. This award is determined from votes cast by the members of NAWCC who view all of the Craft Contest entries and then vote for their favourite. In addition, Tim Manuel will present an up-date on the repair of the Hess Tower Clock in Zurich and the group who worked on the Thamesville Clock will show a short video filmed for CBC Windsor about that clock.

There will be a Silent Auction—remember that the Silent Auction is only as good as you make it! The display theme for this meeting is Canadian Clocks. Bring your favourite Canadian clock, or any clock with a 'Canadian' connection.

Hope we see you there!

December Meeting

The December Meeting was well-attended. The treats and goodies were a hit as always. There are still a few 'jobs' that we need help with. We need someone to take photos for the newsletter and Chapter Highlights. If you have a digital camera and know how to email photos, we could use your help here. We also need someone to take over the Chapter Highlights report for the NAWCC Mart publication. Please contact Cathy if you think that you can help in any of these capacities!

June Auction

Too early to be thinking about June?
Time to look past the wintery weather!

All of these items have already been consigned to our June Auction. This year, consign an item and...
