CHAPTER 92 UPDATE

by Rick Robinson

Hello Everyone,

Once again it's December already and time for one of our best meetings of the year. This year Charlie has arranged for a different group from the Legion to cater our dinner and the menu is looking pretty good. This free dinner is made possible through your dues and continued support of our 50/50 draws. If you have a significant other, please dust them off and bring em' along.

If you've attended some of our Christmas meetings in the past, you'll remember some of the memorable moments that Cathy gave us with her games and contests. This year will be no exception.

For our Show & Tell Display, Cathy has picked something that we all have. A "precious timepiece". These are not necessarily an expensive item, and are often not worth much at all. We'd like to see everyone bring something along, and tell us why it's precious to you.

In order for the Ladies to set the tables for dinner, we need to call the Silent Auction early and to clear the tables by 10:30.

Sooooo, get there early, set up and starting buying stuff!

Finally, in keeping with the spirit of the season, we are once again asking for a food donation to the Legion's Caring Cupboard Food Drive. Your contributions last year helped make a difference.

Thank you.

That's all I have for now. Rick
